Pastor’s Note:

Over the course of the next few newsletters, I will be sharing information I learned from General Assembly. One shocking item I learned was in regards to the Presbyterian Church boycotting Taco Bell. This past year, Presbyterians have participated in letter-writing, rallies, and supported a shareholder resolution calling on Taco Bell to provide detailed reporting on labor violations in its supply chain. This is occurring because the farm workers who pick the tomatoes used in Taco Bell products earn 40 cents for every 32 pound bucket picked and hauled. Workers need to pick 2 tons of tomatoes to earn $50 and most are forced to work at gunpoint. Immokalee workers earn as little as $6,500 a year. The Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW) and the US Justice Dept. have prosecuted and gained convictions in six cases of debt-bondage slavery in the Florida fields in the last six years. More cases are currently under investigation. Taco Bell’s parent company, YUM!, ensures that its suppliers treat animals humanely, but is unwilling to meet with its tomato suppliers and the CIW to discuss the exploitation of the workers. There is more information on the PCUSA web site at www.pcusa.org/ boycott. I hope and pray for all those involved so that God’s will, will be served.
